COMING UP THIS WEEK

At-Risk Interims

This learning update is only for students who are experiencing challenges in their course(s) and/or are at risk of not being successful in those courses. Our hope is for students and families to review the report together to determine what areas need focus. As always, if you have questions or concerns about your child's learning progress, parents are encouraged to contact the teachers via email. Email contact information is found on our school website.

Locker Clean-Up:

Students will attend homeroom at 11:55am for attendance and locker clean out. Students will be asked to remove any food or dirty clothing from lockers and take things home for the holiday as needed.

Holiday Breakfast:

Our Grade 12 Human Services students will be preparing a pancake breakfast for our staff and students. Ticket sales for this event are now closed, and this event is SOLD OUT! To accommodate this event, there will be a late start for classes at 9:00am.
