CELEBRATING DIVERSITY

World Hijab Day February 1

World Hijab Day is an annual event founded by Nazma Khan in 2013. Its purpose is to encourage women of all religions and backgrounds to experience the hijab for a day and to educate and spread awareness on why the hijab is worn.

February is Black History Month

During Black History Month, Canadians celebrate the many achievements and contributions of Black Canadians and their communities who, throughout history, have done so much to make Canada a culturally diverse, compassionate, and prosperous country.
