SHOWS FOR LANGUAGE ARTS LEARNING

I Wish I Was A Mountain (UK) Theatre

Do we really need what we wish for? Written and performed by Poetry Slam Champion Toby Thompson, I Wish I Was A Mountain reimagines Hermann Hesse's classic tale, blending rhyme, jazz, and a touch of philosophy. This show invites kids to explore big questions with curiosity and an open heart. Grades 3–12.

One of a Kind (BC) Storytelling | Theatre

Real-life stories are brought to life by an exceptional diverse cast of theatre artists who lived them. Get ready for a whirlwind of childhood tales, each bursting with truth, humor, cultural richness, and a whole lot of adventure. These stories are creativity told through physical theatre, puppetry, music, song, and movement. Grades 1 and up.

Where Have All the Buffalo Gone?

(BC) Theatre Revisit history at this powerful Métis story which follows two souls as they journey through seven important moments in Métis history. This moving tale weaves together stories, fiddle music, lively jigging, and a life-sized buffalo puppet, with true historical events to explore the love, loss, and resilience of Treaty 6's Métis peoples. Grades 4–12.
